

CEET Pilot Project Program

Spring 2024 - Call for Applications

The Center of Excellence in Environmental Toxicology (CEET) is currently accepting applications for the following pilot projects:

.....

Focused Research Award - Applications related to the Thematic Areas of the CEET: Air Pollution & Lung Health ~ Environmental Exposures & Cancer ~ Windows-of-Susceptibility ~ Environmental Neuroscience
Applicants can request up to $50,000 for one year.

Opportunity Award - Applications addressing climate change and human health, proposing innovative environmental health, toxicology research, or innovative technologies are encouraged!
Applicants can request up to $50,000 for one year.

Rapid Response Awards:

- Request to Obtain Needed Preliminary Data - Provides up to $10,000 to obtain needed data to support a revised NIH grant application.
- Community Engagement Rapid Pilot Project - Provides up to $10,000 to respond to a community-based environmental health concern.

**No salary support for the faculty member is allowable. Any standing or research faculty from any Penn School may apply.**

Applications are due Monday, April 15, 2024.
Please visit the CEET website for additional details and to access the application forms.

